PRESS RELEASE: CPRE Sussex to take part in Big Help Out Family Fun Event

Join the fun and find out more about volunteer opportunities in Brighton this bank holiday Monday.

CPRE Sussex is delighted to be part of the Big Help Out Family Fun Event in Preston Park, Brighton.

The event, to celebrate King Charles III's coronation takes place from noon to 4pm on Monday, May 8.

Organised by the Rotary Clubs of Brighton & Hove, it aims to raise awareness of the many opportunities for volunteering in and around the city.

There will also be face painting, children's activities and performances by the Silver Sounds Senior Samba Band.

CPRE Sussex director Paul Steedman said: "We are thrilled to be part of this event showcasing the amazing work charities do in Brighton and beyond. Please pop down to see us on the day, meet our volunteers and find out more about how you can help shape a greener future for Sussex."

About CPRE Sussex

CPRE Sussex is shaping a greener future for Sussex. Our priorities are:

- Beautiful landscapes, rich in nature and greener towns and cities
- Countryside and green spaces which are accessible to all, enriching lives and health
- Sustainable development for thriving communities
- Effective responses to the climate emergency

We engage with decision makers, influencing them and challenging them to protect the Sussex countryside and green spaces. We inform on environmental issues and empower individuals and communities with robust evidence to defend and enhance the green spaces they love. We believe in collaborating with others to ensure a greener future for our county. We research and provide advice on planning issues. Together we can shape a greener future for Sussex.
