Visitors flock to celebration of the Sussex countryside

Nature lovers of all ages enjoy a fun-filled day at the CPRE Sussex Countryside Day 2025.

The third annual CPRE Sussex Countryside Day has been hailed as a “huge success” by the charity.

Held at the Knepp Estate on Saturday (6 September) the event included guided tours, expert talks and fun activities for the kids.

There was also the chance to meet the amazing volunteers, charities and community organisations shaping a greener future for Sussex.

CPRE Sussex director Paul Steedman said: “This year’s CPRE Countryside Day was a fantastic celebration of the outstanding landscapes and important habitats we have here on our doorstep in Sussex. It was also an opportunity to find out more about the inspirational work being done to protect, promote and restore our countryside.

“I would like to say a huge thank you to the staff and volunteers who made the event possible, the community organisations who joined us on the day and the Knepp Estate for hosting us. By working together, we can ensure the Sussex countryside can be enjoyed by generations to come.”

About CPRE Sussex

CPRE Sussex is shaping a greener future for Sussex. Our priorities are:

- Beautiful landscapes, rich in nature and greener towns and cities
- Countryside and green spaces which are accessible to all, enriching lives and health
- Sustainable development for thriving communities
- Effective responses to the climate emergency

We engage with decision makers, influencing them and challenging them to protect the Sussex countryside and green spaces. We inform on environmental issues and empower individuals and communities with robust evidence to defend and enhance the green spaces they love. We
